

Vacancy Announcement

Sustainable Wildlife Utilization Resource Officer

The Namibian Association of Community Based Natural Resource Management (CBNRM) Support Organizations (NACSO) is looking for a Sustainable Wildlife Utilization Resource Officer to support MET, conservancy committees and support organizations with the development of structured systems that will support sustainable utilization of wildlife resources.

Minimum Requirements

Education/Experience: A minimum of a diploma or undergraduate degree in wildlife management, natural resources management is required. At least 5 years of demonstrated experience in natural resource management, wildlife management, or Community Based Natural Resource Management. Familiarity with Namibia's communal area conservancy program, trophy hunting and live-game sales industries and market conditions.

Skills and Abilities: Strong written and verbal communication skills, ability to work with communities and still convey conservation concepts and methodologies, must have strong initiative and ability to work independently, good facilitation skills, willingness and ability to work for extended periods of time in remote and undeveloped areas, ability to operate a 4x4 vehicle, valid driver's license.

Application

For detailed Terms of Reference please contact Samison Mulonga (smulonga@wwf.na), (061) Tel: +264 (0)61 239945/0812274867 or download from the NACSO website (www.nacso.org.na). For applications please send to Annastasia Naiteta (annastasian@nacso.org.na) Tel: +264 (0)61 230888/230796, or sent to NACSO Office, P.O. Box 98353, Windhoek, Namibia or hand delivered to at 19 Lossen Street, Ausspannplatz, Windhoek. Applications should include a cover letter, curriculum vitae and certified copies of qualifications. All foreign qualifications should be accompanied by NQA evaluation.

*Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.