PURPOSE

The NCE Fund was established in 2017, with the purpose of providing financial assistance to individuals who are enrolled, or wish to enroll, in conservation-related, environmental, or sustainable development studies, mainly at the level of master's degree or equivalent.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

This is based on the financial situation of the applicant, chances of success in post-graduate studies based on performance to date, the current position held by the applicant, the applicant's track record of commitment and self-motivation, leadership potential, the course being pursued, and availability of NCE funds.

CRITERIA

- Applicants must have completed at least a primary degree and preferably an honours degree or equivalent.
- Applicants must be accepted as full- or part-time students at an accredited university in the SADC region. Students wishing to study outside the SADC region may be supported at the level of those studying in the sub-region and the onus will be on the applicant to raise additional funds.
- Applicants must be Namibian citizens.
- Preference will be given to motivated students with good academic track records who come from disadvantaged backgrounds.

APPLICATION PROCESS: Bursary applicants must provide electronic copies of the following:

- Completed and signed application form;
- Namibian ID;
- Degree certificates and transcript of results;
- Official proof of acceptance / enrollment from the university or institution;
- Evidence of cost of degree programme.
- If applicant is successful, a bank confirmation letter must be provided with banking details from the university / institution to which the funds should be transferred.
